

Greg Brodie is a highly educated, award winning golf coach. Gregor is a graduate of Birmingham University with a Post Graduate Degree in Sports Coaching. Greg has also become one of the very few coaches in the country to earn his ASQ Level 3 Coaching Certificate.

Greg is the Head County Coach for the Surrey Ladies County Golf Association and coach's the boys county u16's squad. Greg is also a coach for Reeds School the 2014 national team champions.

He has an infectious enthusiasm for the game. An ardent student of golf, Greg was awarded the coveted Titleist scholarship when finishing in the UK Top 10 trainees of the year back in 2000.

He spends a great deal travelling the world, spending time with world leaders in junior and player development. He has amassed many qualifications and accumulated hundreds of CPD (continued professional development) points with the PGA.

He is passionate about improving his pupils' game and bringing them to meet their true potential. An innovative coach who constantly achieves outstanding results, Greg has a great deal of experience having worked with players of all standards. He uses state of the art equipment from Trackman to motion capture analysis equipment and works with a holistic team of sports scientists to achieve truly outstanding results

Greg has a vast tool box of teaching styles and methods that makes him incredibly versatile, as a result allowing him to cater to the needs of men, women, boys and girls from beginner to elite level and as such works with casual leisure golfers to tour professionals

